Ivan R. Lopez is a Miami-born theatre artist, where is on the faculty of the theatre department at Florida International University and has an MFA in acting from the National Theatre Conservatory. Ivan works for Healthy Humor as a hospital clown (humor therapist) and does regular rounds at Nicklaus Children's Hospital as Dr. Purple. He has spent the past two summers at Paul Newman's Hole in the Wall Gang Camp in Connecticut, a camp where children with serious illnesses can have some serious fun. As a local theatre artist, Ivan has collaborated with New Theatre, Main Street Players, White Rose Miami, O Miami Poetry Festival, Microtheatre, Artistic Vibes, One Minute Play Festival at the Deering Estate, and many others. He is thrilled to be working with Orchestra Miami once again. He last worked with the company in An American Soldier's Tale.

This concert is being presented with the support of the Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs and the Cultural Affairs Council, the Miami-Dade County Mayor and Board of County Commissioners and sponsored in part by the Department of State, Division of Cultural Affairs, the Florida Council on Arts and Culture and the State of Florida.
